

Cazcanes Tequila Celebrates Strategic Distribution Partnership with Winebow Fine Wines & Spirits in Key Markets

Richmond, VA & Los Angeles, CA – June 4, 2026

Cazcanes, one of the fastest-growing luxury additive-free tequilas in the U.S., is pleased to announce the expansion of its strategic distribution partnership with Winebow Fine Wines & Spirits serving as the exclusive distributor in 13 markets, including California, Connecticut, Delaware, Washington, D.C., Illinois, Florida, Maryland, Minnesota, New Jersey, New York, South Carolina, Washington, and Wisconsin.

Founded in 2015 in Jalisco, Mexico, Cazcanes is sourced from organic lowland Blue Weber agave distilled with volcanic spring water from Navichi Springs. The craft brand uses only ingredients and methods that are true to earth – leading to a distinctly complex, agave-forward profile. Cazcanes Tequila's core selection of Blanco, Reposado, and Añejo are supplemented with limited offerings; all standouts in the award-winning range.

Beyond tequila, Cazcanes Nuestras Raíces, the brand's small-batch and uniquely hand-crafted agave distillate, was recently awarded a perfect 100-point score from Wine Enthusiast — an historic first for a spirit by the respected, authoritative publication.

“The relationship between Cazcanes and Winebow Spirits was built with mutual trust and hard work, long before a formal broad partnership,” said Jessica Partington, Senior Vice President of Spirits at Winebow. “We’re excited to keep building the brand through the expertise of our focused spirits team connecting Cazcanes to the best restaurants, retailers and the spirits community.”

“Officially solidifying this partnership marks an exciting new chapter for both teams. We have tremendous respect for the Winebow organization, their people, and the passion they bring to the spirits industry every day,” remarked Edwin Dolgopyat, CEO Cazcanes Tequila. “Together, we believe there is a significant opportunity to grow while staying true to the authenticity, craftsmanship, and values that define our brand. We’re grateful for the support Winebow has shown us over the years and look forward to building something truly special together for many years to come.”
